

Innovate From Within Resilient Organisations

Innovation breeds resilience. This program helps organisations become resilient to unexpected change/disruption. The program helps professionals treat change as an opportunity via increasing their confidence and knowledge of innovation. They are equipped with a toolkit to apply their learnings from the program at their workplace.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

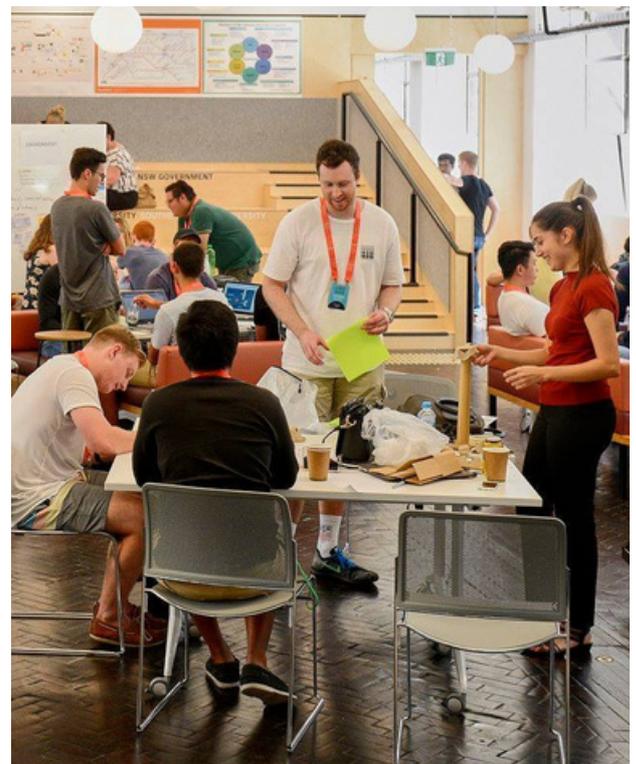

Innovate From Within - Resilient Organisations is designed by SSE to help participants understand how being innovative can be the key to responding confidently to unexpected changes in their work environment. Through this program, participants will learn to:

- Identify the changes in their work environment;
- Understand what it takes to become resilient to change and see change as an opportunity;
- Create ways to respond to change effectively using the toolkits;
- Encourage ideas and creative thinking in their teams.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Through the Innovation From Within - Resilient Organisations program, participants will:

- identify opportunities to bring positive change through innovation;
- Learn to apply innovative work practices and procedures such as Appreciative Inquiry and the Value Proposition Canvas (VPC) as they solve complex problems;
- Become champions for innovative thinking, leading the creation of a work environment and management practices that support innovation thinking;
- embed and practice a culture that encourages implementation of good ideas and learning from failure, instead of a 'blame culture';
- Discuss how to turn ideas into products, processes and services.

This program helps students develop sought-after enterprise skills in:

Innovation as a tool for resilience

Growth mindset

Creative problem solving

Enterprising abilities

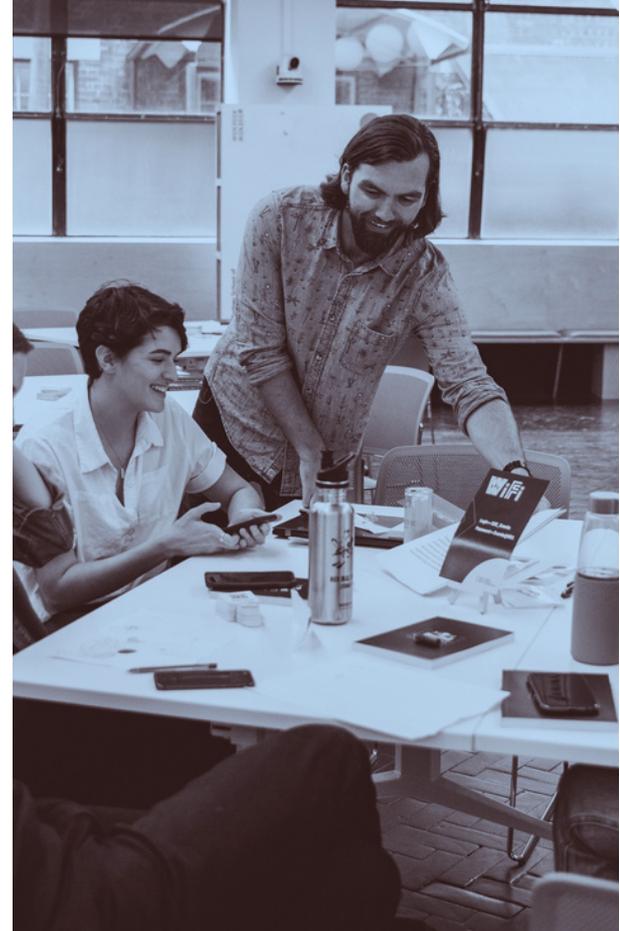

Critical thinking

ABOUT SSE

SSE is Australia's first, and only, Government-initiated School of Entrepreneurship. It was established to enhance and embed growth mindsets, entrepreneurial skills, and innovative thinking, across diverse communities. SSE's impressive global networks and community impact is espoused by a unique foundation and structure; a not-for-profit organization, with founding member institutions comprising all 11 Universities in New South Wales and TAFE NSW.

SSE continues to bring practical, experiential and project-based programs into schools to equip young people with the skills and mindsets needed for the workforce of today.

SSE's programs help the next generation of entrepreneurs and innovators create real impact by exposing them to challenges faced by their community and the world, providing a framework that can be used to contribute to the solution of those problems.

MODULES AT A GLANCE

Participants work through six modules to complete Innovate From Within - Resilient Organisations, supported all the way by group mentoring sessions and online learning resources.

Each of the modules is designed to contribute to your skills growth journey.
